INVESTIGATION: *****THIS REPORT SHOULD BE READ IN CONJUNCTION WITH AND AS A PART OF REPORTS COMPLETED BY INVESTIGATOR LESIAK AND DET. PLYBON*******

On 28 May 08 at approx 1630 hrs R/Sgt was notified by Chief Of Courts Kelly Jackson to report to the Criminal Courts Building for a fight which occurred in courtroom 307, there were 6 offenders in custody and three Deputies in local hospitals. 1st Assistant Deputy Chief K. Connelly was notified of the situation, Detective C. Plybon # 253 CCSPD and myself reported to 2650 S California Chicago, IL
 To investigate the Aggravated Battery that occurred in courtroom 307 at approx 1700 hrs. Inv Lesiak reported to Mt Sinai Hospital for interviews.

On 28 May 08 at approx 1700 hrs R/Sgt. interviewed ASA Vicki Kennedy who advised me of the following information in summary and not verbatim. ASA Kennedy was assigned to courtroom 307 on above date and that after a finding of not guilty in a bench trial she noticed the victims family members in the courtroom gallery yelling and screaming at Deputies assigned to the courtroom, she also stated that she saw the cousin of the victim now identified as

BROWN, Antwand, resisting Deputy Woods as Deputy Woods instructed him to get on the ground. She stated she saw BROWN and Deputy Woods and another M/W Deputy in the courtroom and BROWN hitting both Deputies in the face and chest area. CONTINUED →

On 28 May 08 at approx 1810 hrs R/Sgt. interviewed Circuit Court Judge Nicholas Ford via phone who advised me of the following information in summary and not verbatim. Judge Ford stated that after his finding of not guilty he went back into his chambers and heard people yelling in the courtroom. When he came back into the courtroom, he saw a M/B subject wearing a blue tee shirt now known as BROWN, Antwand fighting with Deputy Woods and Deputy Ramos, resisting them and not listening to their commands. Judge Ford stated he saw D/S Woods and Ramos along with BROWN enter the courtroom; BROWN was actively resisting the deputies and hitting them. Judge Ford saw BROWN hit both Deputies several times.

On 28 May 08 at approx 1840 hrs R/Sgt. interviewed D/S Tawanda Wilson # 3755 who advised me of the following information in summary and not verbatim. D/S Wilson stated that she responded to courtroom 307 because of a security call, she arrived in the rear of the courtroom, entered and sat in the jury box of the courtroom. At this time there was a finding of not guilty in a murder bench trial and one M/B subject with a blue tee shirt now known as BROWN, Antwand and one M/B subject with a black hooded sweatshirt and comrows now known as BROWN, Lionel jumped up and stated "Fuck this shit" at which time she stated she escorted the defendant SAMUELS back to the lock up in the rear of the courtroom. When she came back into the courtroom she was with Sgt Morton and the people were in the gallery and still screaming and yelling at the Deputies. She said she saw BROWN, Antwand hit D/S Woods in the chest to get him out of the way; she saw D/S Woods grab BROWN, Antwand by the arm. At this time BROWN, Antwand struck D/S Woods in the face. D/S Woods attempted to handcuff BROWN, Antwand who was still resisting and striking D/S Woods. D/S Ramos attempted to assist D/S Woods. D/S Ramos was struck in the face by BROWN, Antwand. As both D/S Woods and Ramos were attempting to handcuff BROWN, Antwand, they then fell into the courtroom. She stated that during this time D/S Quinlan was still in the gallery of courtroom 307 when she saw a F/B now known as CLAY, Marsha and another F/B with D/S Quinlan. At this time, she saw CLAY, Marsha strike D/S Quinlan in the neck and head area several times.

On 28 May 08 at approx 2030 hrs R/Sgt. interviewed JACKSON, Laburron M/B DOB 15 Sept 84 who advised me of the following information in summary and not verbatim after being advised of his Miranda rights from a pre-printed form. He stated that there was a verbal argument between BROWN, Antwand and a M/B Deputy, and that the M/B Deputy and a M/B Sgt informed them that the victim's family had to wait in the courtroom until the defendant's family left the building. He said that his family members were standing up and that BROWN, Lionel stated, "He was ready to go." He stated that CLAY, Marsha hit her son BROWN, Antwand in the face and told him to "shut up." At this time BROWN, Antwand attempted to leave the courtroom and the M/B Deputy told him to sit down, but Antwand still went toward the door. The M/B Deputy attempted to handcuff him and Antwand did resist him. He said Antwand said, "Why you are cuffing me?" At this time, a M/W Deputy assisted the M/B Deputy in handcuffing Antwand and they all struggled into the courtroom where Antwand was still resisting. He said he saw the Judge come into the courtroom towards the Deputies. He said he heard the Judge say, "Stop your foolishness or I will put you away for a long time." At this time, he said he saw a lot of police enter the courtroom and he was told to put his hands on the wall. JACKSON stated he did not see any Deputy hit anyone and did not see Antwand hit anyone, just resist. On 29 May 08 at 0030 hrs Det. Plybon charged JACKSON, Laburron with one count of Resisting a Peace Officer and assigned an 11 June 08 court date in Branch 43. JACKSON, Laburron was given an I Bond and was released with his property.

On 28 May 08 at approx 1900 hrs R/Sgt. interviewed SCALES, Danielle F/B DOB 24 OCT 87 who stated the following information in summary and not verbatim after being advised of her Miranda rights from a pre-printed form. She stated that she was the fiancée of the victim in the murder case and that after the finding in the case that BROWN, Antwand and an M/B Deputy were arguing. She stated that the M/B Deputy told everyone to sit down and they could not leave. She stated that Antwand was sitting next to her and they were just talking. She stated that Antwand got up and the M/B Deputy dragged him into the courtroom. She stated she did not see anyone get hit. She stated she hurt her right upper leg. Per Lt Lyons #76 Scales was released without charging after she was going to the hospital for chest pains.

On 29 May 08 at approx 0200 hrs R/Sgt along with ASA Maureen Renno went to Cook County Hospital to interview CLAY, Marsha who was in the hospital for a fracture to her right tibia and was scheduled for surgery later that day. ASA Renno interviewed her in room 1065 in R/Sgt.'s presence. ASA Renno documented this conversation.

On 29 May 08 R/Sgt. contacted the State's Attorney's Office Felony Review Unit and advised them that this case was continued from the previous day, after which R/Sgt. was advised that an ASA would contact me. R/Sgt. was contacted by ASA Joe Lattanzio and met with him at the Criminal Courthouse at 1045hrs. After ASA Lattanzio spoke with witnesses and after reviewing the case ASA Lattanzio approved felony charges of Aggravated Battery to a Police Officer of two counts for BROWN and one count for CLAY.

On 30 May 08 R/Sgt along with Inv Lesiak reported to Cook County Hospital to finger print CLAY, Marsha who was out of surgery, and was issued a hospital mitt by the bond court judge.

THIS CASE IS CLEARED BY ARREST AND CLOSED
